CAPE TOWN. THE DOCKS.

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

The Docks. This centre of coming and going has a peculiar interest of its own. For at least two days during the week it is a scene of busy life, Tuesday bringing the mails and newcomers, and Wednesday seeing the departure of the home-going mail, with those returning to the Old Country either on holiday bent or business, which tends so much to strengthen the connection between Great Britain and her colonies. There is an adequate train service with the town, and everything is being d-ne to ensure the comfort of both the in-coming and out-going passenger.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

Printed in England.
